

Shimmerplanet

For the one who kills tomorrow

BIOGRAPHY

You have heard Shimmerplanet's Soren Anders singing the theme song to VH-1's "My Coolest Years." You may also have heard 60's pop icon Lesley Gore singing Anders' song "Cool Web" on her recent comeback album. Now, on September 12, 2006, Shimmerplanet will release twelve new songs by the critically acclaimed writer. Titled For The One Who Kills Tomorrow, the highly emotional disc is inspired by the extravagance and musicianship of Björk and Rufus Wainwright, and showcases Anders' dark, confessional lyrics as well as his classical training.

Continuing her collaboration with Anders, the immortal Lesley Gore (legendary artist of "It's My Party" and "You Don't Own Me") appears as a guest vocalist on one of the new tracks, "Siren". Gore is one of three singers (including Anders) heard on For The One. Avant-garde New York vocalist Carolyn Eufrazio returns in her role as Shimmerplanet's Yin, singing lead on many of the new songs. Recorded in New York City, For The One is a testament to the recording ingenuity of Blake Morgan, who also helmed the studio for Shimmerplanet's debut album, Welcome to Shimmerplanet. Eufrazio is currently touring as Ms. Gore's back-up singer.

Welcome was hailed as "one of the most original and enjoyable releases in recent memory" (Gregg Shapiro, Windy City Times) and "a roller coaster ride of talent, depth and emotion from start to finish" (Brandon Charles, Vibe-Rate), and compared to everything from Radiohead's "Kid A" to classic 60's soul. The Songwriters' Hall of Fame bestowed special recognition on the single "No Safe" from Welcome. For The One, like Welcome, was mastered by Grammy-winning producer Phil Nicolo. The string and horn arrangements were written by Anders, who also writes for film and theatrical productions. Singer/songwriter Mike Errico contributed several unconventional guitar tracks to For the One, adding e-bow and lap-steel guitars to the sound palette.

Anders has also collaborated with Chris Stein of Blondie (on the off-Broadway play, "Sexotheque"). Currently Anders is writing music for the film "Hope and a Little Sugar," starring India's Anupam Kher ("Bend It Like Beckham), and has contributed music to numerous other films, including "Up to the Roof" by Norman Mailer's son, John Buffalo Mailer.

All Shimmerplanet releases are available via Shark Meat Records, and via digital distribution on iTunes, Amazon, Y! Music, AOL Music, Fye Download Store, and Virgin Digital.
